Each child had a different power. Each child also had the ability to gift others with a one characteristic. I will explain each child.

Crocus could give the gift of music. Her power was to sing people into anything.

Tulip could give the gift beauty. Her power was to entice people into what she wanted.

Windflower could give the gift of wit. Her power was to confuse people into giving her what she willed.

Lilac could give the gift of fragrance. her power was to allure people into her trap.
